

Bulletin - Sept. 12, 2021

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus makes it crystal clear about the high cost involved in being one of his people and never pretends that it is less than demanding. Suffering is the blood, sweat and tears of life. The cross, which is planted at the centre of Christian living is not an invitation to lead a miserable life but is a call to hope in the face of those sufferings, which are a normal part of human existence.
–Desmond Knowles–

The Parish Office is closed except by appointment.
