21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

The test of Sunday worship is how we live at home, behave at work and treat our neighbour during the week. Salvation depends somehow on our cooperation, our personal decision and the intensity of our efforts.

Birthright Updates- We are honoured and thrilled to have been chosen by Archbishop Mulhall and his committee as recipients of $6000 from the Archdiocese of Kingston's Lenten collection. We thank those involved in selecting Birthright as a worthy charity. Our recent dinner raised $18,000 and we have been receiving some very generous donations. In addition, we will be welcoming 2 new Board members in the Fall as well as 4 new office volunteers. Thank you to Suzanne Renaud-Flanagan for taking the lead to prepare and deliver an excellent training session for new volunteers. God continues to look after us and our needs.
